Dear Sir:

Am this day in receipt of following telegram from "The Manufacturs Nat Bank of your city viz "Mint declines receiving "Bullion, will have to go to refinery advise us." Was surprised at this, as the two previous shipments made in the same way as this were handled with so much satisfaction. If not trespassing to much on your time will you kindly inform me by return mail the objections to this shipment? and if in the future the policy of the Mint will be the same? If it is any fault of the Bullion" and you will have the kindness to so state we
